“ Akira, we are going to miss you out here in Las Vegas. You always would surprise us with a phone call saying that "I am on my way to Vegas Cousins and I want to get together". "Can we have a cook out?" " If not, I just want to see you, Roy, LaNedra and Royale". The last time you where here and we got together, you expressed how much you love us because we represented what family is all about. We love you and our hearts are broken. To be absent in the body is to be present with the Lord!! Bye for now our dear Akira!!!
