

Ms. Keandra Shantell Watson

September 19, 1982 - October 9, 2025

Keandra Shantell Watson was born to the late Lathiscia Y. Watson and the late Charles E. Watson Sr. on September 19, 1982 in Independence, La. On the night of October 9, 2025, Keandra was called home by our Heavenly Father at the age of 43.

Keandra was a resident of Amite, La. She joined Grant Chapel A.M.E. Church under the influence of her late grandmother, Mary F. Williams and the late Reverend David Bowles as Pastor.

Keandra attended Amite Westside and then went to Northwood Preparatory School. She left Amite, La. and moved to Independence, La. where she worked various jobs throughout her lifetime. She was an employee at Burger King where she loved and was waiting to return before she was called home. Keandra was loved by anyone who she crossed paths with, by anyone who she encountered with, by anyone who she had a conversation with, and if you knew her, she wouldn't let you walk away without saying "Have a Safe Blessed * Day."

Keandra leaves to cherish her memories: four children: Kayla Watson, Davonta Watson, Kinara Watson, and Kathiscia Watson; her granddaughter, Keiara Sonnier; and a special friend, Jim George; her sister, LaShanta Williams; her brothers, Charles E. Watson Jr. and Gregory Thompson; her nieces, Xabria Williams, Regyana Robertson, Deja Minor, and Tylaysia

Thompson; her nephew Gregory Thompson Jr.; her Godmother, Donna Lands; two God sisters, 3 God brothers, three special hearted grandchildren, Ace Day, A'lanna Day, and Jacelyn Hughes; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Keandra was preceded in death by her parents, Lathiscia Watson and Charles Watson Sr.; her grandmothers, Mary Williams and Earline Foster; her grandfathers, Albert Williams and James Willie Porter, Sr.
